

SOME HUMOROUS METAPHORS AND SIMILES FROM HIGH SCHOOL PAPERS

He spoke with the wisdom that can only come from experience, like a guy who went blind because he looked at a solar eclipse without one of those boxes with a pinhole in it and now goes around the country speaking at high schools about the dangers of looking at a solar eclipse without one of those boxes with a pinhole in it.

She caught your eye like one of those pointy hook latches that used to dangle from screen doors and would fly up whenever you banged the door open again.

The little boat gently drifted across the pond exactly the way a bowling ball wouldn't.

Her eyes were like two brown circles with big black dots in the center.

Bob was as perplexed as a hacker who means to access T:\flw.quid55328.com\aaakk\ch@ung but gets T:\flw.quidaaakk/ch@ung by mistake.

Her vocabulary was as bad as, like, whatever.

He was as tall as a 6'3" tree.

John and Mary had never met. They were like two hummingbirds that had also never met.

The thunder rumbled ominously, making a sound much like the sound of a thin sheet of metal being shaken backstage during the storm scene of a play.

The red brick wall was the color of a brick-red Crayola crayon.
