...A cherished expectation for the future...

People have historically taken action because they are inspired by hope. People hope that their accomplishments will help to build a stronger human culture. In this essay, consider the question provided below.

What role do hope and the absence of hope have on human existence?

Like all Imprint Essays, this is an essay that may be drafted for your formal portfolio, so it should be at least five paragraphs in length. Your essay should begin with a strong introduction of the concept of a belief. The body of your essay should present a clear interpretation of the mechanisms driving hope and forcing its depletion. Finally, conclude your essay with a powerful decision about how human behavior develops as a consequence of hope or its absence. Your essay should be structured, but not modeled in the Supernova format. If you are struggling, consider the gear sparking questions provided above. Be sure your writing is concise, transitional, and grammatically correct.
